

MARIS STELLA WEEKLY BULLETIN

7 SEPTEMBER 2021

GRADE 5 PIRATE ORALS

As part of this term's English theme: "Shipwrecked", our Grade 5 girls were asked to 'get into character' and address their classmates as a friendly or even ferocious buccaneer or swashbuckling captain and give us a glimpse into the exciting lives that they lead, using as much pirate lingo as possible. The 'hearties' had such fun and no one ended up in Davey Jones's Locker!

EQUESTRIAN

Holly Caro (Grade 10) has been selected for the KZN Equestrian Team, following the SANESA Qualifier that took place at Galloping Winds in Ballito this past weekend. Holly will attend Nationals at Kyalami Equestrian Park in October 2021 where she will compete in both the Show Jumping and Performance Riding events. Congratulations, Holly!

TINMAN DUATHLON

Kenya Malgas (Grade 2) completed her first TinMan Duathlon in a time of 49:53 on Sunday, 29 August 2021. Well done, Kenya!

GRADE 7 PROJECT BASED LEARNING WEEK: HOT AIR BALLOONS

Our Grade 7 enjoyed a Project Based Learning week from 30 August - 3 September. The theme of the week was “Discovering the Olympics”. The girls researched the origin and history of the Olympics as well as the Paralympic Games and created their own hot air balloons as part of the section on Ancient Olympic Events. The importance of good mental health as essential to being a strong athlete was discussed. The girls also created their own Olympic sport and finished off the week with a mini-Olympic Game Day on Friday.
