

Dancing excellence rewarded

Maris Stella pupils, Megan Mordaunt, Tarlia Samuels and Alexia Jennings, have been selected to represent South Africa with their outstanding Acro and Dance skills. Megan and Tarlia took part in the recent Talent Africa 2016, and were selected for the South African team invited to perform at Talent America in New York this month. These talented performers won seven gold medals between them. Alexia has been selected as a member of Performing Arts Team South Africa 2016, who represented South Africa at the World Championships of Performing Arts in the USA.
