Maths mastermind

Maris Stella's Lauren Walsh participated in the KZN Abagility Maths Championship recently, placing first in her level and earning the Champion of Champions Award. She was also selected to do a live presentation on stage in front of 500 people, which she did accurately and within the allocated time. Later this year, Lauren will be representing South Africa at an International Abagility Championships in Thailand.

Friday, 29 September 2017