

Midmar Mile school swimmers round-up

The group of Maris Stella swimmers who took on the Midmar Mile.

Swimming with conviction

MORE than 20 girls from Maris Stella participated in the recent Midmar Mile.

Emma Roberts, at only eight years of age, was one of the youngest participants in the race, and Kristina Le Roux in Grade 12, raised R1 000 for Community Chest through sponsorship.

The school is proud of Keli Reyn-

This is the third year in a row that Keli has taken part in these marathon swims, swimming eight miles in 2015, and an amazing 16 miles in 2016, raising a whopping R29 000 for the Dusi Umgeni Conservation Trust.

So far the eight milers and 16 milers have raised R1 915 000 for the various nominated charities.