

Maris Stella shines bright was in the top one percent in the country for four of her subjects.

Lucy Paynter was placed in the top one percent in the country for two subjects, obtaining six distinctions. Julia Blythe was in the top one percent for business studies also obtaining six distinctions.

The other top learners with six distinctions were Rebecca Standage and Chloe Garroch. "Well done girls for making Maris Stella proud," said Cindy Hudson, marketing and PR coordinator at the school.

Some of the learners that achieved outstanding results in their matric

Maris Stella School in Berea congratulated its top learners for outstanding achievements in the 2019 Independent Examination Board (IEB) matric exams. The IEB pass rate decreased from 98.92 percent the previous year. A total of 12 597 pupils, full time and part time, sat the exam with 2 144 registered in KwaZulu-Natal.

Amy Randelhoff, the Dux recipient for 2019 obtained nine Distinctions and