Take your CELTA online

Gain transferable workplace skills and take charge of your future

Cambridge English Teaching

Who is CELTA for?

- Matriculants and university students who want to teach part-time while they study
- Teachers who want a gap year to travel and teach English
- New teachers starting their career
- Experienced teachers who want to develop their skills

How can I take the course?

- Online using Zoom
- Part-time 3 evenings / week for 10 weeks
- Full-time 4 full days / week for 5 weeks

Why choose CELTA?

- The most widely recognised English teaching qualification in the world
- Provides hands-on teaching experience and observation of experienced teachers that help build your confidence in the classroom
- Gives you the essential skills and knowledge you need to teach English as a foreign language to adults and older teenagers
- It's developed by Cambridge Assessment English, the world's leading provider of teaching qualifications and courses and part of the University of Cambridge

Welcome to The Maris Stella Gazette, a digital publication. It offers our Maris Stella Community the opportunity to advertise products or services in an electronic format, linked to our website. The Gazette will be shared with the Maris Stella Community every 8 weeks.

Advertising space can be used for accommodation for sale or rent, holiday accommodation, venue hire, beauty services, sports coaching, extra lessons, au pair services, employment opportunities etc.

All proceeds go to our Outreach project that each class participates in. Each Maris Stella class adopts a charity with which they work throughout the year, raising funds to purchase equipment or upgrade facilities as required.

The girls also look forward to visiting their charity, bringing much needed support, cheer and assistance.

Material must be received and paid for no later than the 25th of the month. No adverts will be accepted without payment. Deadlines may vary due to school holidays.
