

Annie rolls into town

The forthcoming Annie musical features five male actors from Durban High School who will join a talented cast in this sensational musical comedy theatre production. They are Sisemseni Sibisi and Ntuthuzelo Mbadi in front, Lungelo Mbatha, Leeroy Sithole and Jeeveshwara Soorah

Durban is in for a treat when Maris Stella, in association with DALRO, presents their new musical theatre production, Annie, from 28 to 30 March.

This comedic musical is set during the Great Depression and tells the story of Annie, an orphan who is taken in by America's richest billionaire, following her escapades as she gets accustomed to living in Oliver 'Daddy' Warbucks' mansion. Longing to meet her parents, Warbucks announces a search for them and a reward, bringing our many frauds in the process. The cast will see five male actors from Durban High School who will be playing in the following roles as dancers, chorus line as well as other characters.

They include Sisemseni Sibisi as a New Yorker, Ntuthuzelo Mbadi as 'Bundles' and a New Yorker, Lungelo Mbatha as a Pool Guy and a New Yorker, Leeroy Sithole in a leading role as 'Rooster' and Jeeveshwara Soorah as a Mayor and a New Yorker.
